Janice Delmar

This year, our yearbook staff would like to dedicate the yearbook to our wonderful Chemistry teacher, Janice DelMar. During her seven years at Rowland Hall, Mrs. DelMar has never failed to make Chemistry a fun time with her vivacious personality and exciting demonstrations. She instilled an appreciation for her subject in even the most non-scientific students. She constantly demonstrated how much she cares about each and every one of her students by helping us whenever help was needed, encouraging us not to give up, and letting us have note-cards during our tests.

"Final Year"

This is our last year before starting out on our own separate paths in life. For the last four years, we have worked very hard to prepare ourselves for the experiences that are yet to come. Some special memories of our years at Rowland Hall including the trip to Kanab in 9th grade, finally being allowed to walk off campus for lunch in 10th grade, being able to drive off campus in 11th grade, and now, finally reaching the top of the school as Seniors. Tears are shed when we don't hear right away from the schools we would like to hear from, but when we finally get a reply we jump for joy. Our time here in high school will definitely be one to remember for many years to come.

"Home Stretch"

This year every junior was a familiar face around the school. The energy was flowing as we were finally able to drive off campus. Some of the favorite places to drive to lunch are Einstein's, Jimmy Johns, B&D's. A new American History teacher, Terri French, joined us this year. We started the long preparation process for college and attended the college meetings once a month.

"Freshtastic"

We are the Underdogs of the school. We finally get our laptops and free periods! Only disadvantage is the fact of no off-campus privileges. We are faced with eating the food provided here and we have had to eat it for three years prior to being freshman and can't stand it anymore.

9th Grade Trip

Kanab, Utah

Nathan Liou feeling refreshed after a walk through the creek.

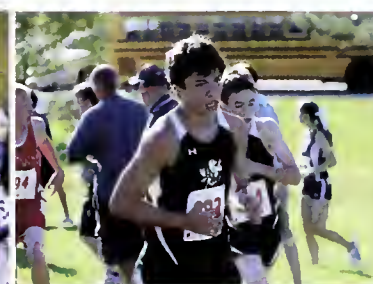

The 9th graders went to Kanab, Utah from September 14-17. Here they collected plants, learned about the geology of the canyon, did community service for Best Friends Animal Sanctuary, and wrote essays about the desert. They camped out in tents on the sand, and each group had to prepare dinner or breakfast everyday. Each classmate quickly found out who wasn't very good at cooking. During free time, the students enjoyed going to the sand dunes and admiring the beautiful view.

Abbie Mitchell watches with the rest of the lower, middle and upper schools as Michael Marquardt, student body president delivers his speech at the first day of school convocation.

Nick Bradley, Sam Parker and Beau Sperry watch as the whole school funnels onto the front field at the McCarthy campus.

First Day of School

Sam Parker moves through the halls excited to be back in school.

On September 2, 2009, all Rowland Hall students from the Beginning School through the High School arrived at school for the first time in two and a half months. Skeptical of what was ahead, they followed the teachers who lead them from the Larimer Center to the McCarthy Campus, where the first all-school convocation took place. The students were then sent back to the Lincoln Campus to begin their day meeting new teachers and preparing for another year to come.

Aloha Stomp

Leis and Grass Skirts created the Atmosphere of a Hawaiian Luau.

The first dance of the school year took place outside the cafeteria of our Lower School campus. Alec Darr, a senior DJed the event, which turned out to be a fun and festive beginning of the year.

To everyone who came to the Aloha Stomp, Thank you for celebrating with us!
Or as one would say in Hawaiian, Mahalo nui loa na ho'olaule'a me la kaula!

Canapalooza

A combination of good music and donating cans

Every year in October, kids from each grade volunteer to perform their musical talents. They perform not only for good music but for a good cause as well. Admission was 5 cans or 5 dollars. The money went towards to buying cans for Cross Roads Urban Center. Kapil Sharma singing Jay-Z's "Run this town" was one of the favorites for the night. There was music from the Rock, Country, Folk, and Classical genres. For a few of the songs the audience started singing along.

Half Day, Whole Heart

Time That Makes a Difference

Every year, the students of Rowland Hall take half a day to go out into the community to make a difference. By caring for animals, delivering food, and planting trees students donate valuable time and manpower towards making our community a better place to live. This year students volunteered at the following organizations: the Children's Center, Heart and Soul, Project Linus, The Sharing Place, Red Butte Gardens, Neighbors Helping Neighbors, Crossroads Urban Center Thrift Store, Neighborhood House, Utah Animal Adoption Center, Ronald McDonald House, Utah Food Bank, Camp Kostopulos, Wasatch Community Gardens, Rape Recovery Center, and Tree Utah.

Student Council

This year, student council planned and ran many exciting events from the Aloha stomp to Battle of the Classes. The October canned food drive was one of the most successful ever. Also, everyone had a great time at the variety of stomps, including the first ever White-Out stomp, formals, pep rallies, and sports games. As student body president, Michael Marquardt inspired us all to be our best selves. Student Council members this year included: Adrienne Murphy, publicity director; Eric Albee, historian; David Chardack, treasurer; Maddie Haslam, secretary; Hannah Bebbington, senior class president; Matt Bossart, senior class vice president; Courtney Reed, junior class president; Nathan Zick-Smith, junior class vice president; Julia Bodson, sophomore class president; Sophie Janes, sophomore class vice president; Willie Griffiths, freshman class president; and Saeed Shihab, freshman class vice president.

Latin Club

The Latin Club extends the context of the Latin language and culture through both community service and social events. This year we met and socialized with other Latin students around Salt Lake through certain social events such as toga bowling, which let us bring the wisdom of Latin to the wider community.

With over forty members and an officer staff consisting of the entire AP class, French Club is one of Rowland Hall's most visible clubs. The primary goal of the club is the appreciation of French culture, with special attention paid to French cinema. The club has also been actively involved in Rowland Hall's effort to provide relief to Haiti after this year's earthquake.

Spanish Club

"EL SERVICIO ES PODER"

This year, Spanish Club raised money for a small village on the Amazon River in Peru called Palmeras. It is home to 500 indigenous people and three months out of the year, nearly half the village sits under water and can only be accessed by boat or canoe. The village is in need of a water sanitation system as well as assistance with a school system and community health. We had bake sales and sold wristbands to raise money for the cause. The wristbands are inscribed with the slogan, "El Servicio es Poder" (Service is Power.) ¡ El club de español es el club más padre en el mundo! (Spanish Club is the coolest club in the world.)

Yearbook/ Newspaper

This year the Gazette came back to life. After retiring for a while, Rowland Hall has a new, strong and well-composed version of a Rowland Hall tradition. This year the Newspaper and Yearbook staff were determined to issue a fun, interesting, and informative newspaper as well as yearbook. When the first Gazette was released this year the outcome was fantastic. Students were seen reading it in the hall and heard talking about it with peers. After all the students' hard work and a lot of help from advisor Kate Taylor it has been a relief to see the Gazette return with the quality that has been seen from them over the years. The Hallmark is usually mostly black and white, but this year, for the first time ever, the yearbook is completely in COLOR! By documenting events, organizing pages, and photographing people the yearbook staff has worked hard to get correct and exciting information and for the yearbook. The two staffs throughout the three trimesters have worked hard to produce these quality publications.

Ace Ace In Your Face!

The volleyball team once again ended their year with an appearance in the 2A state tournament. Led by seniors Alexis Shimada, Chloe Hauenstein, Leah Petracca, Maddie Haslam, and Namoonga Kwendakwema, the team competed hard all year long and saw such efforts pay off when they won the Copper Bracket at their tournament in Richfield, Utah. The girls fought hard all season and had a lot of fun. Congratulations!

Girl's Soccer

It was a great season for the 2009 High School Girl's Soccer Team. Despite the challenges of being a young team, the girls played with heart and class everytime they stepped out onto the field. The team finished the season with a 3rd place state title. They were coached by Jamie Wilhite and Missy Tschabrun with captains Anna Loughridge and Jenny Achelis. Congratulations Girls Soccer Team on an awesome season!

Jenny Achelis, the only senior this year, was an incredible leader and player. She was named to the 1st-team All-State and was also awarded MVP for the season.

Congratulations Jenny and thank you for your influence and contribution to the team this year.

2nd at State in 2A!

IMPRESSIVE SEASON for Cross-country!

The Cross-Country team did a fabulous job throughout the season. The season went from September through October. The teams stayed healthy and worked hard. The team had one of the best seasons they have ever had. They took 2nd in the 2A State Tournament. They worked as team and it paid off in the end.

Congratulations Cross-Country team and Coach Oftedal Also, thanks to all the seniors for their hardwork and leadership you showed the team this year. We'll miss the seniors but we are looking forward to seeing the rest of the team next year. Keep up the good work Cross Country.

Three-Peat

For the 3rd straight season the boys golf team went undefeated and won both the Regional and State Championships. Throughout the season they put in hours of hard work and intense practice. The golf team consisted of three seniors; Joey Polychronis, Quentin Morse, and Carson Huiskamp, 1 junior, Robert Lainhart, 3 sophomores, Ben Harries, Johnny Bebbington, and Sam Nolan, and 5 Freshmen, Jack Egan, Jonathan Zubair, Joe Diehl, Kyle Cowdrey, and Dylan Zanker. Coaches Shawn MacQueen and JZ Davis have been with this team since day one and continuously push the team to be their best. Everyone improved their game and made giant leaps to becoming better golfers. Look forward to a four-peat next season.

Christmas and Thanksgiving Giveaways

Both the Thanksgiving and Christmas Giveaways were huge successes. The Thanksgiving Give-Away was November 25, 2009 at the Indian Walk-In Center and the Christmas Give-Away was in the Lincoln Campus Cafeteria on December 23, 2009. The people that that helped this year were Spanish students, alumni and a few Rowland Hall families. Over all we gave turkeys for over 3,600 families! During the Christmas Giveaway the student leaders are Charis Benjamin, Tim Bohnsack, David Chardack, Nick Esparza and Robert Lainhart. Some of the many ways that people helped were unloading food, interviewing families needing food, and helping people carry food to their cars. Thanks to the large amount of donations that came in for the seasons there were a lot of people satisfied for Christmas and Thanksgiving.

Candle & Carol

Candle and Carol is a fun, long standing tradition. We get to sing, eat refreshments, have fun with friends, and the chosen few get to hold candles. To start the night, everyone walked into the chapel at St. Mark's Cathedral with their advisors accompanied by a carol. This was followed by readings of selections from the Bible by Chloe Hauenstein, Gi Sang Won, Hannah Bebbington, Wyatt McNeil, Julie Barrett, and Lee Thomson. Jade Conlee had an amazing solo and the choir and strings orchestra performed a few pieces. Trace Browning's sermon about Mary suggested we should all welcome opportunities into our lives. The evening closed with a carol and everyone ate cookies and drank punch in the reception area.

Winter Formal

This year's theme for Winter Formal was Northern Lights. The dance, which was held at Pierpont, had a great turn-out, with over 200 people in attendance. The venue was decorated to look like a Winter wonderland. This was a perfect last celebration of the Holiday Season for the Upper School.

Winter Sports

The last year of a great program

Winter Sports has been going on since 1965, but this is its last year. The program started because the school was too small for many regular sports teams during the winter term. In the early years, Winter Sports became a way for the school to have fun as a community by getting out and skiing. In the last year of the program there were more options than ever. These choices included: Skiing, Snowboarding, Ice Skating, Rock Climbing, Gymnastics, Dance, Ski Jumping, Swimming, Bowling, Paintball and Videography. The tradition will continue in the Middle and Lower Schools. Hopefully there'll be something we can adopt as a new tradition in the Upper School. We will miss Winter Sports.

Amnesty

This year Amnesty began a new project, raising money to begin an account with the San Francisco based non-profit KIVA, which gives microloans to impoverished individuals to help lift them out of poverty. In the 2009-2010 school year Amnesty made approximately 50 micro-loans to individual entrepreneurs through KIVA. To raise money for our KIVA account Amnesty conducted a bake sale. We also roamed the hallways just before Valentines Day and Easter, selling fair trade chocolate. In total, Amnesty made about a thousand dollars! The primary goal of the Amnesty International club is to free prisoners of conscience and to help stop and prevent other human rights abuses. Our primary method of action is letter writing. At Christmas we organized a Holiday Card Action, during which students throughout the upper and middle school wrote cards to prisoners of conscience to help show their captors that we are aware of and in opposition to their imprisonment.

Interact

The Interact Club had an incredible year of service this year. They worked to raise money for Get Beyond Firewood, an organization that works to eliminate the need for firewood in refugee camps because of the danger it poses to the women who must travel long distances to collect the firewood as well as the devastating environmental consequences. Interact also engaged in local service projects such as raising awareness about the issue of rape in Utah, collecting necessities and holiday gifts for recently resettled refugees, and tutoring local refugee students.

Musical Theater

A good time singing, dancing, acting, and fiddling on the roof

This year's production of Fiddler On The Roof marked the second year of musicals undertaken by a combined Middle and Upper School cast. Following on the heels of the very successful Les Miserables, Fiddler did not disappoint, delighting audience members for three nights of packed performances. Work on Fiddler began early in the summer, with senior Jackson Hannon building the show's set, ensuring all would be ready for the actors when they returned in September. Among our leads were: Daniel Bynum as Tevye, Eileen Veghte as Golde, Jade Conlee as Yente the Matchmaker, Chase Kroeshe as Lazar Wolf, Kyleene Johnson, Madeline Strait, and Aria Thaker as Tevye's daughters. Wyatt McNeil as Perchek, Sam Parker as Motel, Ted Janes as Fyedka, Daniel Christensen the Constable, and Max Byck as the Rabbi. A cast of over thirty students gave a memorable performance. The production spilled beyond The Larimer Center, connecting to learning in history and other areas of academic studies in both divisions. Under the artistic direction of teacher and director, Gary Lindemann, Rowland Hall's theatre program continues to define and shape its mission of community through storytelling.

Band and Choir

Musical Masters

The Rowland Hall band members are Chase Kroesche on alto sax, Gavin Carmichael on tenor clarinet, Matt Jackson on vibraphone, Jay Patel, Guthrie Burnett, and Doug Labov on bass guitar, Kapil Sharma on piano, Josh Wolf and Chase Pope on drums, and Nate Carlisle, Adrienne Murphy, and Matt Walje on electric guitar. In addition to normal concerts in the middle and upper school meetings, the Rowland Hall band also participated in the Peaks Jazz festival where they went on to win the outstanding high school combo award. The choir as well a strong showing at the Choir Regionals, occasionally performs at Morning Meeting and leads the singing at Candle and Carol. Students in the Rowland Hall choir: Brett Armstrong, Alex Beaufort, Daniel Bynum, Corbin Christensen, Wyatt McNeil, Sam Parker, Charis Benjamin, Jade Conlee, Claire Edgley, Michaela Hori, Breanna Johnson, Kyleene Johnson, Nitika Reddy, Sydney Rich, Cari Sanyer, Aria Thaker.

Creative Writing

This year's creative writing team, with the help of teacher and published poet Joel Long, honed their craft in the field of poetry, short story and other fictional and artistic writing. Joel invited several authors and poets to talk to the class, offering advice and inspiration. In addition to the annual national-award-winning Literary Magazine, the class's projects include anonymous poetry postcards, "the Poetree" (a tree with poems hung as ornaments), and going to readings at the public library.

Dance Company

Without Heart, There's No Art

The Dance Ensembles worked incredibly hard this year and presented amazing shows. In the beginning of the year, they worked with local dancers and choreographers in creating the concert, "Buy Local" which was the culmination of this artist-in-residence program. At the end of January, Sofia went on maternity leave, and the dancers were left to be whipped into shape by her substitute, Ursula Perry. In February, the students took their turn at choreographing the three day series, "Food for Thought." In these concerts, dancers of all ages were given the opportunity to take risks and have fun. Finally, the seniors finished the year strong with their work in the Senior Concert which was their final "Goodbye" to Rowland Hall.

Boys' Basketball

Rowland Hall, What Time Is It?

The boys' basketball team competed in a difficult region this season. With five seniors, eight juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman, the varsity team pushed hard throughout the season. Although this season was challenging, the team was led by two determined senior captains, Matt Bossart and Quentin Morse. Bossart led the team with 279 points, averaging 14.68 points per game, and making 15 3-point shots. By the end of the season, sophomore Johnny Bebbington and freshman Wesley Austin were part of the starting five players, gaining valuable experience building for a strong future.

Matt Bossart

"This season has been very different from last year. It hurt a lot to lose all the seniors from last year. We are just trying to focus on getting better everyday so that we can be playing our best basketball at the end of the season when it matters the most."

Quentin Morse

As the team's second highest scorer, Quentin made a total of 190 points, averaging 9.05 points per game. Additionally, he made 12 3-point shots this season.

Girls' Basketball

Runnin', Gunnin', and Stunnin'

It was a rough season, but the girls stayed strong. With a 4-14 record, the team still managed to step foot on the court with a smile on their face and give it their all. Sadly, for Coach Bill Tatomer and the rest of the girls' basketball team, three seniors, Jenn Livermore, Chloe Hauenstein, and Namoonga Kwendakwema won't be there for next season.

Bill Tatomer

"Everyone understands that what the inspirational seniors have learned from the game of basketball and what they have taught their underclass teammates will help every student athlete face and overcome adversity, challenges, and successes that lie ahead on the road of life."

Namoonga Kwendakwema

"This season was amazing. The team is like family now; we work together on and off the court. These girls are some of the greatest people I've had the pleasure to know."

Chloe Hauenstein

"Girls' basketball has been one of my favorite parts of high school. I've had so much fun and this season was a great way to end my senior year. I will really miss it."

Rowmark

Rowmark Ski Academy had a very successful season in 2009-10. Summer ski camps were held at Mammoth, CA and Mt. Hood Oregon in conjunction with a grueling summer and fall conditioning program. Fall orientation was spent rafting and bonding on the Green River. Off-season training was completed with two great fall camps in Colorado. We are very proud of our three Rowmark Alumni Alice McKennis, Chirine Njeim and Erik Fisher who competed in the 2010 Vancouver Olympic games. Junior Andrew Kircher clinched the Slalom and Combined titles at the National Junior 2 Alpine Championships in Sugarloaf, Maine and Freshman Breezy Johnson qualified to compete in Italy at the Topolino J3 World Championships. We have had many more outstanding results as well but what we are most proud of is the level of camaraderie and teamwork shown by everyone throughout this season lead by team captains, Zoe Wolcott, Wesley Warner, Chase Ryan, and JJ Cleason. It takes a team effort to be successful in this sport and the Rowmark athletes have definitely risen to the challenge.

Swing For Life

Kathy Howa has always been very passionate about Breast Cancer Awareness, as she is a breast cancer survivor herself. In 2002, Howa started Swing For Life with the help of her softball team in order to raise awareness for this extremely common disease. Now, 8 years later, the battle is still on to find a cure for this problem. Over those 8 years, Swing For Life has recruited over 90 high school sports teams from around the country. Additionally, Swing For Life has spread to other sports including soccer, tennis, volleyball, football and basketball. So far the Swing For Life program has earned a total of $482,000 and hopes to earn more in the upcoming years. Coach Kathy Howa thanks all of those people who have helped this program, whether it be by means of donations, volunteering, or participating in the pink games.

Farewell

Kathy Wight, Olle Larsson, and Janice DelMar, three of our departing faculty members this year.

Farewell!

It is with sadness that we say goodbye to seven of our dedicated faculty and staff. First, we will miss the distinctive laugh and bright smile of the 28-year veteran coach and Rowmark founder Olle Larsson. Second, the art studio will feel the loss of Susan Beck, whose tireless care and inspiration fueled many students' creativity. Then there's Kathy Wight, who has had to teach in the early mornings with choir, and moves from room to room during the day to share her love of Opera and music with students throughout the Lincoln campus. Janice DelMar began and ended her high school career inspiring and motivating countless students to explore the wonders of Chemistry. Jo Edwards will be leaving us for a year to take a sabbatical in England. We hope she will return with even more energy and enthusiasm. Finally, we have two teachers who will be leaving us after one year at our school. Terri French in AP History, who has brought a bit of Brooklyn to our halls and Fang Hui, who kick-started our Chinese program. To all of these teachers, the students and faculty of Rowland Hall want to say thank you, happy travels, and good luck!

CLASS 2A SOCCER TOURNAMENT

Senior sparks R.H.

By MAGGIE THACH

Being the only senior for Rowland Hall, Jenny Achelia knows she has to be a leader. Against South Sevier in the first round of the Class 2A playoffs on Wednesday, she led to direct her teammates and give words of encouragement.

Ultimately, it was her goal in the second half that won the game for the Wildcats. Achelia scored in the 64th minute, and extended Achelia's senior season. Rowland Hall beat the Rams 2-0 on Wednesday to advance to the quarterfinals against Heaver on Saturday.

"It's not just me. None of us wanted our season to be over just yet," said Achelia, who scored in the 64th minute. "I want to do as much as I can to help my team."

South Sevier was tough to score against up until then. The game was played on mostly the Rams' side of the field but South Sevier played scrappy, defensive defense, with defenders swarming to the ball. And goalkeeper Rachel Torgerson, who started playing only a couple years ago, made some good saves.

South Sevier kept the Wildcats off the board in the first half but Rowland Hall made some adjustments in the second. One adjustment that made a big difference was moving Achelia from forward to central midfielder. Because Rowland Hall has only two subs, the players are used to moving around on the field.

All the girls are prepared to play from goalie to forward," Rowland Hall coach James Willette said. "When we got that first goal, it gave us some breathing room. They kept their composure. They kept their composure."

In short
Rowland Hall's lone senior, Jenny Achelia, scores in the second half to give the Wildcats some breathing room after a scoreless first half.

South Summit 2, Gunnison 1 • Carlos Duka and Mykan Stevens each scored a goal to lift the Wildcats to the semifinals. Karen Ornes scored Gunnison's lone goal in the second half.

Grand 8, Layton Christian 0 • The Red Devils had no trouble on offense as they scored five goals in the first half.

Parowan 5, Uihoua 0 • Parowan scored three goals in the first half and didn't look back. The defense was just as strong as the offense and Ibrahim Freeman was a big part of that as she recorded the shutout.

Spring Fling

At the Tracy Aviary

Held at the Tracy Aviary, the 2010 Spring Fling celebrated spring dancing, and the approach of the school year's end. From 8 pm-11 pm, sophomores and freshmen gathered to party up and blow off the stress of having to ask a girl to dance. .GASP! Although not many people showed up, it didn't stop those who did attend from having a blast! The brightly decorated cabin encircled by the exotic birds radiated the essence of spring. It was a fun and enjoyable event to finish the year off on a high note.

White-Out Stomp

The years spring dance was called the White-Out Stomp it took place on April 17, 2010 in the Lincoln campus cafeteria. At this dance everyone wore white clothing. The stomp took place right after battle of the classes so everyone could ease the battling to see what class was best. The event had a great variety of music thanks to senior Matt Walje, our DJ.

Auschwitz Lullaby

This spring's play is Auschwitz Lullaby. Set in the Nazi concentration camp of Auschwitz, the play focuses on the life of a teenage girl who survived the gas chamber, the attempts to hide her from the Nazi guards, and the failed attempt to smuggle her to freedom. The main characters in the play are Laurent Backman as Dr. Jonah, Jackson Hannon as Canada, Andrew Deneris as Capt. Gunter, Meagan Stiverson as Miriam, Isabelle Bertram as Lena, and Ellie Kimball as Vacek.

Battle of the Classes

Battle of the Classes is an annual event held at the school where grades battle against each other in various competitions to try to prove that they are the superior grade. This year the competitions included a knockout contest, flag football, a music video, an obstacle course, and a lip-sync. After all five events, the seniors and juniors were tied. There was a tiebreaker sudoku challenge held the following week. The seniors won, proving that they are just barely superior to the other grades.

Softball

Suck It Up. Be A Man. Rub Some Dirt On It.

She's The Man

The softball team ended the season on a good note with an appearance at the 2A State Tournament. The team was composed of six sophomores, two juniors, and three seniors who stepped onto the field ready to fight and work hard. Despite the season's record, the team drastically improved as the season progressed, and the coaches and players couldn't have asked for anything better. We will miss the seniors and captains Alexis Shimada, Hannah Grunwald, and Leah Petracca, and we wish them all the best!

Baseball

Breakthrough season!

The team is having a great year. In the last three years they only won three games all together. They've already won more games this year than the past three years combined. The team roster includes four seniors on it. They are: Peter Shipman, Matt Walje, Colton Sandburg, and Corbin Christensen. This year's traditional home game at Spring Mobile Ballpark, home of the Salt Lake Bees, resulted in an early call of the game when the Winged Lions took a 10 point lead over the Layton Christian Eagles. They completed their season placing second in regionals and only lost in the last inning to Enterprise. Congratulations to the baseball team for their hard work and a spectacular season of ball.

Boys' Soccer

"Let's Get Tropical!"

Although we lost many good players from last year, this season was great for the team. The six seniors—Griffin Gilbert, Tim Bohnsack, Andrew Patterson, Wills Shott, Wyatt McNeil, and Eddie Broschinsky—worked hard to make the team better. In addition to the senior captain Griffin Gilbert, captains Mats Sanyer and Johnny Bebbington helped lead the team with energy and encouragement. The soccer team ranked 3rd seed in the state tournament. At the end of April, the Winged Lions headed down to Moab to take on Grand, but unfortunately were defeated 3-0 in a well-fought match.

"POWER!"

The tennis team is on its way to earning it's fourth straight state championship. At the region tournament, All 5 positions earned first place, which easily earned us the region trophy and first seed in the state tournament. first place in all 5 positions in the region tournament. Our seven seniors have lead the team through an incredible 4 years of undefeated in the region and state tournaments. Luckily, this year the team recieved several promicing recruits from the freshman class. Congratulations on a great run, seniors!

"You Saw Nothing"

The girls golf team this year is the first ever -in the history of rowland hall- girls golf team to qualify for state! The 3 girls, Sara Mann, Kyleen Johnson, and Steph Schott had a great season and couldn't of done it without their great coach JZ Davis. From learning the monotonous rules of golf to the tactis of speeding without getting caught, the girls golf team had an awesome season!
